COTTONSEED MEAL SEIZED BY STATE

Fails to Measure Up to Requirements—Supreme Court to Convene August 22.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Raleigh, N. C., August 17.—A carload of cotton seed meal has been seized in detention by representatives of the North Carolina Department of Agriculture for failure to comply with the State law as to paying the State tax, carrying charges, showing analysis, and for failing below the minimum standard of ammonia, which is 7.50. The seizure was made by Secretary Elias Carr, of the State Department, and he has advertised it for sale as forfeited to the State on September 15. The meal was shipped into the State to a local dealer at Gastonia, where it fell into the hands of the State authorities. The department is making a determined effort to put a permanent stop to the sale of all classes of feed stuffs that are below the required standard.

Efforts are being made to have every North Carolina Mexican War Veteran attend the annual reunion to be held at Indianapolis, Ind., September 15. The invitation to the reunion includes all veterans, their widows and families, and all ex-soldiers and their families. The ranks of the old veterans are now becoming thin, but the plucky announcement is made that these annual reunions will be held as long as there is one veteran left able to call the roll. It is understood that there is to be an effort to get the next reunion held in North Carolina, and to this end Jessica R. Smith, of Henderson, is making special effort.

John J. N. Brown, of Concord, is president of the North Carolina Division, coming into the presidency through being vice-president at the time of the death of Colonel J. L. Cantwell, of Wilmington. The secretary is Captain O. R. Smith, of Henderson. It is also the Society of the North Carolina Veterans, of 1816, P. Cooper, Henderson, commandant; president, Mrs. Jackson, Charlotte, vice-president, Mrs. J. L. Lawrence, Petersburg, treasurer.

The North Carolina Supreme Court is to convene for the fall term Monday, August 22, and general preparation for the Supreme Court building are in progress. The day of court will be devoted to the examination of applicants for license to practice law in this State, with indications that there will be an average class of fifty or sixty candidates.

BARN DESTROYED BY FIRE.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Bedford City, Va., August 17.—The large barn of Major E. T. Walker was destroyed by fire this morning. When about 4 o'clock the fire was discovered it had gained such headway that it was impossible to extinguish it.

The barn contained the crop of new wheat, estimated at about 250 bushels, a large store of feed for stock and the farming implements, entailing a very considerable loss.

Irons is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary, and bloodhounds have been sent for to trace the perpetrator if possible.

There were insurance policies on the barn and its contents amounting to $500, but this will scarcely cover the loss of the barn, which was a new building.
